

Columbia

A. C. Horton
Personally appeared before me A. Brigham, Notary Public, and doth say, that the annexed instrument is just, true,
and original, and that Horton & Clements are most indebted to government, and he also acknowledge to have received a draft in favor of Horton & Clements from the Treasury for three hundred thirty three dollars to pay for the annexed instrument.
Sworn to and signed before

A. C. Horton
for Horton & Clements
"o

(TX)

R17-25